The copy you print will reflect the status of the classes as of the date you print the copy; please realize class availability will change from day to day. The JATC will add classes periodically, so please refer to the on-line view for the most current class list and availability.

Please note on the column title bar the word "DETAILS". If you click on this, each class will show a dropdown box with a class description and many details related to that particular class.

All class availability is on a first-come, first-serve basis. Prior to registration, we urge you to take time to check your account set-up on our website; this will ensure a smooth and timely registration and payment process starting September 4, 2012.
